Report of Independent Auditors

Board of Directors Gerard Asset Management, Ltd. Menomonee Falls, Wisconsin

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Gerard Asset Management, Ltd. as of December 31, 2005 and 2004, and the related statements of income, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the years then ended that you are filing pursuant to rule 17A-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Gerard Asset Management, Ltd. as of December 31, 2005 and 2004, and the results of its operations, changes in retained earnings, and cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The additional information on pages 9 through 11 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements but is additional information required by rule 17A-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004

Note A - Description of business and summary of significant accounting policies:

Description of business:

The Company is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers and is a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company is an introducing broker-dealer who forwards its transactions to a clearing broker-dealer on a fully-disclosed basis. All commission revenues are earned from this clearing broker-dealer and from various mutual funds. The Company holds no customer securities or funds for investment, nor does it owe funds or securities to its customers. Its customers are primarily businesses and individuals in southeastern Wisconsin. The company has a bank account, which is excluded from the computation of net capital, which is used to forward withheld taxes on distributions to customers. The Company also provides retirement plan services to customers for a fee.

Use of estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash:

The Company treats all highly liquid investments as cash. The clearing deposit is not treated as cash because its use is restricted. The Company monitors the financial condition of the banks where it maintains cash and believes there is no significant credit risk.

Commissions receivable:

All of the Company's commissions receivable are due from its clearing broker-dealer and various mutual funds. Commissions receivable are typically collected in full each month and an allowance for doubtful accounts is not provided.

Depreciation:

The cost of equipment is capitalized and depreciated over its estimated useful life using accelerated methods.

Advertising:

All advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Costs and expenses include advertising and marketing expenses of $68,804 in 2005.

Income taxes:

The Company has elected to be taxed under the S corporation provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and does not pay income taxes on its taxable income. Instead the shareholder is liable for income taxes on the Company's taxable income.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note B - Clearing deposit:

The Company's clearing broker-dealer, Wells Fargo Investments, LLC, previously required that the Company maintain a security deposit with it. This deposit of $21,500 at December 31, 2004 was refunded in 2005.

Note C - Retirement plans:

The Company maintains money-purchase and profit-sharing retirement plans for its employees and invests the contributions with various mutual fund companies. Contributions are made at the discretion of the Board of Directors, and were $2,958 for 2005 and $2,829 for 2004. These amounts include accrued contributions of $2,958 at December 31, 2005 and $2,829 at December 31, 2004.

Note D - Rent, related party transactions:

The Company leases office facilities under a month to month agreement with its sole stockholder. Payments under the agreement were $12,000 in 2005 and $12,000 in 2004.

Note E - Statement of cash flows:

In 2004, the Company's stockholder personally paid $38,977 for a new Company vehicle. In return, the stockholder received the Company's existing vehicle with a net book value of $21,908 subject to a note payable of $8,733, as well as cash of $21,937. The $3,865 excess of property contributed over property received was recorded as a contribution to additional paid in capital.

Note F - Net capital requirements:

The Company is required by provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to maintain net capital of $5,000 and a ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital of less than 1500%. These requirements could restrict the payment of dividends.

The Company met these requirements at December 31, as follows:

	2005	2004
Net capital	$25,705	$26,353
Aggregate indebtedness ratio	86.7%	53.1%

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL ACCOUNTING CONTROL

Year ended December 31, 2005

Board of Directors Gerard Asset Management, Ltd.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and additional information of Gerard Asset Management, Ltd. (the Company), for the year ended December 31, 2005, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the consolidated financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

- 1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons
- 2. Recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13
- 3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2005 to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
